MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU)

Between

Nile University of Science and Technology (NUST), Somalia

And

NIILM University, India

Article 1: Purpose

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is made and entered into between Nile University of Science and Technology (NUST), located in Somalia, and NIILM University, located in India, hereinafter referred to as "The Parties."

The purpose of this MOU is to establish a strategic partnership aimed at fostering academic collaboration, enhancing educational opportunities, and contributing to the growth and development of both institutions. This collaboration will leverage the strengths and resources of both universities to achieve shared goals in areas such as student exchange, faculty collaboration, research, curriculum development, and technological integration.

Article 2: Objectives

The objectives of this partnership are as follows:

1. Student Exchange Programs

The Parties will facilitate the exchange of students for academic, research and cultural exposure. This will enable students from both institutions to enhance their learning experience and gain a broader understanding of different educational systems and cultures.

2. Faculty Collaboration

The Parties will encourage and support faculty collaboration by facilitating joint research projects, exchange programs, faculty development and shared academic initiatives. This includes developing joint academic curricula, hosting lectures, and creating opportunities for collaborative research that aligns with current industry needs.

3. Curriculum Development

The Parties will collaborate on curriculum development to create innovative and industry-aligned programs that address the educational needs of today's global economy. This will involve mutual consultation on the design and review of academic courses, programs, and certifications.

4. Workshops and Seminars

The Parties will co-host conferences, workshops, webinars, and seminars on various academic, technological, and professional topics. These events will enhance the professional development of both students and faculty members, fostering knowledge exchange and networking opportunities.

5. Technology and Resource Sharing

The Parties will explore opportunities for sharing teaching resources, technological tools, and educational materials to improve the quality of education. This collaboration may include digital learning platforms, joint access to research databases, and the sharing of best practices in teaching.

Article 3: Responsibilities of the Parties

1. Support the implementation of student and faculty exchange programs.
2. Facilitate the development and review of academic programs in collaboration with NIILM University.
3. Encourage faculty participation in joint research and academic activities.

Article 4: Duration of Agreement

This MOU will become effective upon signature by both parties and shall remain in force for an initial period of five (05) years, unless otherwise terminated by either party as provided herein. The MOU may be renewed by mutual agreement upon expiration.

Article 5: Confidentiality

Both Parties agree to maintain confidentiality regarding all information, documents, and research shared in connection with this MOU, except where disclosure is required by law. Information shared between the Parties will be used exclusively for the purposes outlined in this MOU.

Article 6: Dispute Resolution

In the event of any dispute or disagreement arising out of or in connection with this MOU, both Parties will work in good faith to resolve the matter through negotiation. If a resolution cannot be reached, the matter will be referred to an independent mediator or arbitrator mutually agreed upon by both Parties.

Article 7: Modification and Termination

This MOU may be modified or amended at any time by mutual written consent of both Parties. Either Party may terminate this MOU by providing three (3) months' written notice to the other Party, stating the reason for termination.

This MOU is signed by the authorized representatives of both institutions as indicated below:

6. Should the collaborative research activities under this MoU result in any potential for intellectual property, each Party shall seek an equitable and fair agreement as to ownership and other property interests that may arise.

7. This MoU may only be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of each Party.
8. This MoU is valid for a period of five years from the date of signing by the authorized signatories of each Party. Each Party shall review the status of the MoU at least three months before the end of the five-year period to determine whether it wishes the MoU to continue and, if so, any modifications that might be necessary. The period of validity of this MoU may only be extended by the mutual written consent of both Parties.
9. This MoU may, at any time during its period of validity, be terminated by one of the Parties upon prior notice to the other in writing not later than six months before the termination date.
10. The Parties may disclose certain confidential information to the other in relation to any future proposal made under this MoU. Each Party therefore agrees that the contents of this MoU and the negotiations in relation to any future proposal remain strictly confidential and each Party hereby undertakes not to disclose the same to any third Party, save for its professional advisers, without the prior written consent of the other Party except where such disclosure is required by law (including, without limitation, under applicable freedom of information legislation).
